OAHU LEAGUE.

OPENING GAMES ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON

C. A. CS. VS. MARINES.

AND J. A. CS. VS. P. A. CS.

Prospects Bright for New Series—
Big Parade of All Four Clubs—
Band Will Lead Procession.

Next Sunday the Oahu Baseball League will start up its regular series at the Athletic Park, and the opening games will no doubt be attended by all the fans of the city. The grounds will be in excellent order, providing that it does not actually rain on the day of the starting up of the league.

The first game will be between the C. A. Cs. and the Marines, and once more the followers of the game will get their full measure of joy when the umpire calls, "Play ball." The C. A. Cs. have been practising for a long time past, and they are in fine condition and ready to make the half-wets sit up and take notice from the first ball pitched.

The Marines have had a lot of ball games lately, and they seem to play an in-and-out game. One day they will do fine work and win a match, and the next time they turn out they can not do anything right and are beaten by some team that should have no chance with them.

The only thing certain is that the two teams that play in the first game will have an opportunity to live up to the fans and get them going in good shape for the series.

The second game will be between the J. A. Cs. and the P. A. Cs., and the latter team of Portuguese will show what they can do on the diamond. It will be their first appearance under their new name, and as Louis Soares will catch for them, they should stand a chance of making good. All the players of the club are of Portuguese parentage, and the team will never play anyone who is not of Portuguese blood.

The Chinese Athletics are also all of the Chinese race, and they only play men of their own nationality. There are some fine players in the ranks of the C. A. Cs., and they will go close to clinching the championship this year.

The Marines are, of course, all members of that branch of the service, and they have the esprit de corps that carries them through many a tight place. The only team that is made up of a mixed nationality is the Japanese Athletics, which nine comprises about all the races in Hawaii—except the Japanese. At times a Japanese does play on the team, but it is very seldom. Still, the team is supported by the Japanese community, and they take a great pride in the fact that they won the championship last year. The Japanese fans are very loyal to their representatives, and root in a way that is the envy of all the other teams.

All four teams in uniform will meet at the corner of Fort and King streets at 1 o'clock on Sunday, and then the parade, headed by the Hawaiian band, will march down to the Athletic Park, where the first ball of the series will be pitched by Chas. Hustace. His Honor Mayor Fern will also be on deck, and he will grace the parade with his presence. The prospects for a successful season appear bright, and as the men who are running the show this year are determined to keep things going right, through the season, there should be no such pillikia as arose last year.

DOTS AND DASHES.

Mrs. Noah Brusso, who happens to be "Tommy Burns" wife, is a through passenger on the Makura, which arrived at this port from Australia this morning.

The skating Marathon was well handled and the next one on May 30 will be every bit as good.

MILITARY LEAGUE.

NEW SCHEDULE IS NOW ARRANGED

SIX TEAMS IN THE

BIG COMPETITION

Original Barry's Beauts to Play—
Fort Ruger Also in Series—
Good Games Anticipated.

Now that the new schedule of the military league is rearranged and the two extra nines entered for the competition, some idea of the extent of baseball in these islands may be gathered. What with the Oahu military, plantation, school and minor leagues, there will be something doing during the coming season.

The Oahu league starts operations next Sunday, and the plantation boys also get a move on. The military league will make a second stab at their series, and the school teams will also get going some. There should be some fine fun in and around the city for the next few months.

The military league, which originally consisted of four teams, has now been increased to six nines, and the Fort Ruger boys and the popular Barry's Beauts will now play in the series.

The Ruger lads were seen on the diamond a couple of times last season, and although they had on both occasions come straight from their jobs of throwing rocks around, they did fairly well. Two of their men afterwards played with the Kaileia, in the Oahu league, and made good, too. Barry's Beauts are too well known to require any mention, but as several of the Hospital Co. men are also on the N. G. H. team, it is not known how the sides will be made up.

All the Sunday games in which the Cavalry figure will be played at Leleia, and the Schofield Barracks boys will be able to see their own team at work out at the cantonment.
